1. Effective immediately, the responsibilities of the Personnel Office in connection with Personnel Evaluation matters are assigned as follows:

a. Policy and program development. Responsibility for the formulation of policy recommendations and program development is assigned to the Plans, Research and Development Staff. This includes continuing analysis of the over-all effectiveness of the program as well as the preparation of appropriate regulatory and procedural issuances for coordination with other interested components.

b. Administration of reporting system. Responsibility for the initiation and recording of Personnel Evaluation Reports is assigned to the Processing and Records Division. This includes the maintenance of suspense records showing reports due, the preparation of routing sheets and necessary follow-up on outstanding requests. The responsibilities of the "appropriate Transactions and Records Branch" as described in PDM 13-52 will be assumed by the Processing and Records Division.

c. Review and analysis of Personnel Evaluation Reports.

(1) Responsibility for the review and analysis of individual Personnel Evaluation Reports is assigned to the Placement and Utilization Division. This includes responsibility for consultation with appropriate supervisory officials and for analyzing and coding individual Personnel Evaluation Reports. The results of such analysis may point to the need for consultation by the appropriate Placement Officer with a specific operating component relative to the conduct of the program in that component or to consideration of policy or program changes by the Plans, Research and Development Staff.
